

TABLE 1 - ALLOWED REFERRAL PAPERS FOR BASIC AND FOUNDATION STAGES CANDIDATES

GUIDANCE FOR REFERRED CANDIDATES ASRING TO ATTEMPT BASIC AND FOUNDATION STAGES EXAMINATIONS

EXAMINATION STAGE	EXAMINATION SESSION SAT	SUBJECTS ATTEMPTED	PAPERS TO BE ATTEMPTED	REMARKS
IF A CANDIDATE WITH REFERRAL SUBJECT(S) ATTEMPTED ANY SINGLE EXAMINATION STAGE IN THE THREE EXAMINATIONS SESSIONS
BI	A BI candidate sat only for either 20 th , 21 st or 22 nd Board's examination session	A candidate who passed all three subjects in any of the three sessions	This candidate is allowed to re-sit All papers in the next examination stage	A candidate who sat for BI only in any examination stage is NOT allowed to combine stages.
		A candidate who failed all three subjects in any of the three sessions	This candidate is allowed to attempt all (3) papers in the Basic stage I
		A candidate who passed two (2) subjects and failed one (1)subject in any of the examination session	This candidate is allowed to re-sit Failed subject(s) in any of the examination session
		A candidate who passed one (1) subject and failed two (2) subjects in any of the examination session
BII	A BII candidate sat only for either 20 th , 21 st or 22 nd Board's examination session	A candidate who passed all three subjects in any of the three sessions	This candidate is allowed to re-sit all papers in the next examination stage	A candidate who sat for BII only in any examination stage is NOT allowed to combine stages.
		A candidate who failed all three (3) subjects in any of the three sessions	This candidate is allowed to attempt all three (3) papers in the Basic Stage II
		A candidate who passed two subjects and failed one subject in any of the examination session	This candidate is allowed to re-sit Failed subject(s) in any of the examination session
		A candidate who passed one subject and failed two subjects in any of the examination session

EXAMINATION STAGE	EXAMINATION SESSION SAT	SUBJECTS ATTEMPTED	PAPERS TO BE ATTEMPTED	REMARKS
IF A CANDIDATE WITH REFERRAL SUBJECT(S) COMBINED TWO EXAMINATION STAGES IN THE THREE EXAMINATIONS SESSIONS
BI & BII	A candidate who sat for Basic Stage I and Basic Stage II examinations during 20 th and 21 st OR 20 th and 22 nd OR 21 st and 22 nd examinations sessions	A candidate who passed all three (3) subjects in the two stages	This candidate is allowed to attempt all papers in Foundation Stage I examination scheme	A candidate is allowed to combine BI & BII but the combined subjects should not exceed FOUR.
		A candidate who failed all three (3) subjects in the two stages	This candidate is allowed to attempt all three (3) papers in the Basic Stage I
		A candidate who passed two (2) subjects in each stage and failed one (1) subject in each stage	This candidate is allowed to combine the two (2) stages and attempt two (2) failed subjects
		A candidate who passed one (1) subject in one stage and two (2) subjects in the other stage	This candidate is allowed to combine the two (2) stages and attempt three (3) failed subjects
		A candidate who failed two (2) subjects in one stage and failed one (1) subject in the other stage	This candidate is allowed to combine the two (2) stages and attempt three (3) failed subjects
		A candidate who passed one (1) subject in each stage and failed two (2) subjects in each stage	This candidate is allowed to combine the two (2) stages and attempt four (4) failed subjects

EXAMINATION STAGE	EXAMINATION SESSION SAT	SUBJECTS ATTEMPTED	PAPERS TO BE ATTEMPTED	REMARKS
IF CANDIDATE WITH REFERRAL SUBJECT(S) COMBINED THREE EXAMINATION STAGES IN THE THREE EXAMINATIONS SESSIONS
BI, BII & FI	A candidate who sat for Basic Stage I, Basic Stage II and Foundation Stage I examinations during 20 th , 21 st and 22 nd examinations sessions	A candidate who passed all three (3) subjects in BI and failed any subjects in the other stages attempted	This candidate is allowed to attempt failed papers starting with Foundation Stage II failed papers and later attempt Professional Stage I failed papers.	A candidate is allowed to combine papers from two consecutive stages (starting with the lowest stages) but the combined subjects should not exceed FOUR.
		A candidate who passed all Three (3) subjects in FII and failed any subjects in the other stages attempted	This candidate is allowed to re-sit FIRST all failed subjects in FI and thereafter re-sit failed subjects in PI stage
		A candidate who passed all four (4) subjects in FI and failed any subjects in the other stages attempted	This candidate is allowed to attempt failed papers starting with the lower examination stage (Foundation Stage I) papers BUT can combine FI and FII and re-sit the failed subjects if they do not exceed four (4).
		A candidate who passed three (3) subjects in EACH Stages attempted	This candidate can combine two (2) stages (starting with lower stages - FI & FII) and re-sit the failed two (2) subjects and later re-sit the failed paper in PI
		A candidate who passed THREE subjects in ONE stage and other ONE subject in the other TWO stages	This candidate is allowed to combine two (2) (starting with lower stages - FI&FII) and re-sit not more than four (4) subjects and later re-sit the failed subject(s) in PI
		A candidate who passed THREE subjects in ONE stage and other TWO subjects each in the other TWO stages	This candidate is allowed to combine two (2) stages (starting with the two lower stages - FI & FII) and re-sit the three (3) failed subjects and later re-sit two (2) failed subjects in PI

EXAMINATION STAGE	EXAMINATION SESSION SAT	SUBJECTS ATTEMPTED	PAPERS TO BE ATTEMPTED	REMARKS
BI, BII & FI	A candidate who sat for Basic Stage I, Basic Stage II and Foundation Stage I examinations during 20 th , 21 st and 22 nd examinations sessions	A candidate who passed TWO subjects in EACH Stages attempted	This candidate is allowed to combine two (2) stages (starting with the two lower stages - FI & FII) and re-sit the four (4) failed subjects and later re-sit two (2) failed subjects in PI	A candidate is allowed to combine papers from two consecutive stages (starting with the lowest stages) but the combined subjects should not exceed FOUR.
		A candidate who passed TWO subjects in ONE stage and other ONE subject in the other TWO stages	This candidate is allowed to re-sit two (2) failed subjects in FI and later re-sit the remaining subjects starting with lower examination stage (Foundation Stage I and later Professional Stage I).
		A candidate who passed TWO subjects in ONE stage and other THREE subjects in the other TWO stages	This candidate is allowed to combine the TWO stages (starting with the two lower stages - BI & BII) and re-sit three (3) failed subjects and later re-sit one (1) failed subjects in FI
		A candidate who passed ONE subject in EACH Stages attempted	This candidate is allowed to re-sit three (3) subjects starting with the two lower stages (Foundation Stage I and later Foundation Stage II)
		A candidate who passed ONE subject in ONE stage and other TWO subjects in the other TWO stages	This candidate is allowed to combine two stages and re-sit four (4) subjects starting with two lower stages (Foundation Stage I)
		A candidate who passed ONE subject in ONE stage and other THREE subjects in the other TWO stages	This candidate is allowed to combine TWO stages and re-sit FOUR failed subjects starting with the two lower stages - PI & PII

EXAMINATION STAGE	EXAMINATION SESSION SAT	SUBJECTS ATTEMPTED	PAPERS TO BE ATTEMPTED	REMARKS
IF A CANDIDATE WITH REFERRAL SUBJECT(S) ATTEMPTED ANY SINGLE EXAMINATION STAGE IN THE THREE EXAMINATIONS SESSIONS
FI	A FI candidate sat only for either 20 th , 21 st or 22 nd Board's examination session.	A candidate who passed all four (4) subjects in any of the three sessions	This candidate is allowed to attempt all papers in the Foundation stage II	A candidate who sat for FI only in any examination stage is NOT allowed to combine stages.
		A candidate who failed all four (4) subjects in any of the three sessions	This candidate is allowed to attempt all papers in the Foundation stage I
		A candidate who passed two (2) subjects and failed two (2) subjects in any of the examination session	This candidate is allowed to attempt failed subject(s) in any of the examination session sat.
		A candidate who passed three (3) subjects and failed one (1) subject in any of the examination session
		A candidate who passed one (1) subject and failed three (3) subjects in any of the examination session
FII	A FII candidate sat only for either 20 th , 21 st or 22 nd Board's examination session	A candidate who passed all four (4) subjects in any of the three sessions	This candidate is allowed to attempt all papers in the Professional Stage I	A candidate who sat for FII only in any examination stage is NOT allowed to combine stages.
		A candidate who failed all four (4) subjects in any of the three sessions	This candidate is allowed to attempt all papers in the Foundation Stage II
		A candidate who passed two (2) subjects and failed two (2) subjects in any of the examination session	This candidate is allowed to attempt failed subject(s) in any of the examination session
		A candidate who passed three (3) subjects and failed one (1) subject in any of the examination session
		A candidate who passed one (1) subject and failed three (3) subjects in any of the examination session

EXAMINATION STAGE	EXAMINATION SESSION SAT	SUBJECTS ATTEMPTED	PAPERS TO BE ATTEMPTED	REMARKS
IF A CANDIDATE WITH REFERRAL SUBJECT(S) COMBINED TWO EXAMINATION STAGES IN THE TWO EXAMINATIONS SESSIONS
FI & FII	A candidate who sat for Foundation Stage I and Foundation Stage II examinations during 20 th and 21 st OR 20 th and 22 nd OR 21 st and 22 nd examinations sessions	A candidate who passed all four (4) subjects in the two stages	This candidate is allowed to re-sit all papers in the next examination stage (Professional Stage I)	Candidates are allowed to combine FI & FII but the combined subjects should not exceed FOUR.
		A candidate who failed all four (4) subjects in the two stages	This candidate is allowed to re-sit all papers starting with those in the lower examination stage (Foundation Stage I).
		A candidate who passed TWO subjects in one stage and failed TWO subjects in the other stage	This candidate is allowed to combine the two stages and re-sit four (4) failed subjects
		A candidate who passed THREE subjects in one stage and failed ONE subject in the other stage
		A candidate who passed ONE subject in one stage and TWO subjects in the other stage	This candidate is allowed to re-sit the failed subjects by starting with three (3) subjects in FI and later the two (2) subjects in FII.
		A candidate who failed TWO subjects in one stage and failed ONE subject in the other stage	This candidate is allowed to combine the two stages and re-sit the three (3) failed subjects
		A candidate who passed ONE subject in one stage and ONE subject in the other stage	This candidate is allowed to re-sit first three (3) subjects of FI and later the other three (3) subjects of FII

EXAMINATION STAGE	EXAMINATION SESSION SAT	SUBJECTS ATTEMPTED	PAPERS TO BE ATTEMPTED	REMARKS
IF CANDIDATE WITH REFERRAL SUBJECT(S) COMBINED THREE EXAMINATION STAGES IN THE THREE EXAMINATIONS SESSIONS
FI, FII & PI	A candidate who sat for Foundation Stage I, Foundation II and Professional Stage I examinations during 20 th , 21 st and 22 nd examinations sessions	A candidate who passed all four (4) subjects in FI and failed any subjects in the other stages attempted	This candidate is allowed to attempt failed papers starting with Foundation Stage II failed papers and later attempt Professional Stage I failed papers.	A candidate is allowed to combine papers from two consecutive stages (starting with the lowest stages) but the combined subjects should not exceed FOUR.
		A candidate who passed all four (4) subjects in FII and failed any subjects in the other stages attempted	This candidate is allowed to re-sit FIRST all failed subjects in FI and thereafter re-sit failed subjects in PI stage
		A candidate who passed all four (4) subjects in PI and failed any subjects in the other stages attempted	This candidate is allowed to attempt failed papers starting with the lower examination stage (Foundation Stage I) papers BUT can combine FI and FII and re-sit the failed subjects if they do not exceed four (4).
		A candidate who passed three (3) subjects in EACH Stages attempted	This candidate can combine two (2) stages (starting with lower stages - FI & FII) and re-sit the failed two (2) subjects and later re-sit the failed paper in PI
		A candidate who passed THREE subjects in ONE stage and other ONE subject in the other TWO stages	This candidate is allowed to combine two (2) (starting with lower stages - FI&FII) and re-sit not more than four (4) subjects and later re-sit the failed subject(s) in PI
		A candidate who passed THREE subjects in ONE stage and other TWO subjects each in the other TWO stages	This candidate is allowed to combine two (2) stages (starting with the two lower stages - FI & FII) and re-sit the three (3) failed subjects and later re-sit two (2) failed subjects in PI

EXAMINATION STAGE	EXAMINATION SESSION SAT	SUBJECTS ATTEMPTED	PAPERS TO BE ATTEMPTED	REMARKS
FI, FII & PI	A candidate who sat for Foundation Stage I, Foundation II and Professional Stage I examinations during 20 th , 21 st and 22 nd examinations sessions	A candidate who passed TWO subjects in EACH Stages attempted	This candidate is allowed to combine two (2) stages (starting with the two lower stages - FI & FII) and re-sit the four (4) failed subjects and later re-sit two (2) failed subjects in PI	A candidate is allowed to combine papers from two consecutive stages (starting with the lowest stages) but the combined subjects should not exceed FOUR.
		A candidate who passed TWO subjects in ONE stage and other ONE subject in the other TWO stages	This candidate is allowed to re-sit two (2) failed subjects in FI and later re-sit the remaining subjects starting with lower examination stage (Foundation Stage I and later Professional Stage I).
		A candidate who passed TWO subjects in ONE stage and other THREE subjects in the other TWO stages	This candidate is allowed to combine the TWO stages (starting with the two lower stages - FI & FII) and re-sit three (3) failed subjects and later re-sit one (1) failed subjects in PI
		A candidate who passed ONE subject in EACH Stages attempted	This candidate is allowed to re-sit three (3) subjects starting with the two lower stages (Foundation Stage I and later Foundation Stage II)
		A candidate who passed ONE subject in ONE stage and other TWO subjects in the other TWO stages	This candidate is allowed to combine two stages and re-sit four (4) subjects starting with two lower stages (Foundation Stage I)
		A candidate who passed ONE subject in ONE stage and other THREE subjects in the other TWO stages	This candidate is allowed to combine TWO stages and re-sit FOUR failed subjects starting with the two lower stages - FI & FII	